

MAKES ADDRESS AT WESTMINSTER CHURCH SUNDAY

Alfred E. Martin Talks on the Glory of the United States.

As part of the patriotic program given during services at the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday, Alfred E. Martin delivered an address in which he told of the greatness and glory of our United States and the elements essential to its greatness.

At the beginning of his talk Mr. Martin called attention to the great development that marked the 144th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, and mentioned the fact that our population had increased from 2,000,000 people living in the 13 original colonies at the time of the Revolution to a population of over 130,000,000 inhabiting the 48 states of the Union stretching through the vast central portion of the North American continent and many islands of the sea.

"But it is not territory, wealth nor a long line of recorded history that makes a nation great," said the speaker. "A nation's greatness depends upon the fundamental principle of government and its exemplification of these principles through ideals of great leaders and through legislation."

Makes Contrast. By way of contrast Mr. Martin cited the religious intolerance that prevailed throughout the world during the 16th and 17th centuries, when subjects were deprived of political rights and subjected to political persecutions, when rulers attempted to control religions.

"Our forefathers came to America to secure religious liberty and political freedom," he said. "Our government is religious. The founders of our nation were God fearing men. The leaders of our nation now and ever have been religious men."

state. Those who are acquainted with the facts know that there is some grounds for the charge. A suggestion of the local rottenness was seen in the raid of the federal agents a few days ago, who found intoxicating drink sold openly in numerous places in the heart of the city as well as the outskirts, and captured as a small sample about $400,000 worth of intoxicating liquor. This is the estimate placed on the captured liquor by the Anti-Saloon League.

Who Is to Blame? "Who is to blame for this disgraceful condition? Whatever answers one may feel inclined to make to that question, we are in the last analysis driven to the conclusion that the city administration should be held responsible for our municipal corruption. It is a fair conclusion that the city administration can not be in ignorance of conditions commonly known by ordinary citizens. If the city administration knows about the conditions and does not enforce the law it is either because the city administration is incompetent to enforce the law or is unwilling to. If it is incompetent to enforce the law it ought to resign and give a chance to somebody who is competent. If it is unwilling to enforce the law, it ought to be impeached for being in collusion with lawlessness, and someone placed in authority who is willing to enforce the law.

Meanwhile the good citizens of our city should place on themselves the responsibility of choosing at the next election, officials who combine good business judgment with sound moral sense, who know that a bad

POLICE AND FIREMEN
CALL ATTENTION TO

South Bend, Sunday, passed through the sanest Fourth of July in its history, according to state-ments made by police and fire officials Sunday evening. At no time in the history of either the police or fire departments has South Bend experienced as sane a Fourth of July as the one celebrated this year.

The absence of heavy shooting throughout the day and night was particularly noticeable to members of the police force, as well as the absence of accidents resulting from fireworks. The fire department responded to several alarms Sunday, but none were caused by the Fourth of July celebration. The city is to be congratulated on its good fortune, according to statements made Sunday evening by officials of both departments, who were more than surprised as well as pleased by the showing made by the city.

DR GARDINER IN PATRIOTIC SERMON

Talks on Loyalty to Country,
Home and Church at Services.

Dr. James L. Gardiner preached yesterday morning at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church on the subject of "Loyalty to Country, Home and Church."

Dr. Gardiner said in part: "The Bible is the greatest book in the world. Compare the Bible to other books on religion and you will find that this book surpasses all others. Other religious books bear upon them the marks of human dictation but the bible bears the imprint of the divine. 'Holy men spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost,' we have their record in this greatest of all books. The bible is the one infallible guide to holy character and holy conduct."

"Now according to the teaching of this book there are three divine institutions and it is to these three I wish to call your attention this morning—Country, Home and Church. 'On this 4th day of July, on this day when we celebrate the 144th anniversary of our independence as a nation, it is right and proper that we should call upon every American citizen to be loyal to the country that we proudly call our own.'"

Universal Sentiment. "Love for country is a universal sentiment as old as man. No man can say who was the first patriot. We know that Moses was a patriot for he turned aside from the pleasures and luxuries of Egypt that he might sacrifice himself for his own people, the Jews. We know that Jesus was a patriot for he loved his own land with a deep and abiding love. But long before Moses stood the most colossal character in human history there were patriots—men who loved their own country and their own race."

"Patriotism is grounded then in the very nature of man. God made him to love his country and he sprang out of whose loins he had sprung. But a true appreciation of country only comes through a deep realization of the cost of one's citizenship. Once in the days of the great apostle Paul, a Roman Captain proud of his citizenship said: 'With what great sum obtained I this freedom?'

Meaning of Citizenship. "If fully and appreciate what it means to be a citizen of this great Republic we must count the sacrifices made by the men who gladly gave themselves that they might build here the freest and noblest nation on the face of God's great earth. Recall, if you will, the sacrifices made by the Pilgrim Fathers who landed upon our shores three centuries ago."

"What sought they thus afar? Bright jewels of the mine? The wealth of seas? The spoils of war? They sought a faith's pure shrine. Ay, call it holy ground, the soil where first they trod. They have left unstained what there they found—freedom to worship God."

"May God help us today to fully realize the price in human blood paid that we in America might enjoy the blessings of freedom. God grant that the flag for which our forefathers fought at Bunker Hill and Lexington, for which the brave veterans of the Civil War fought at Gettysburg and Chattanooga—this flag for which our brothers fought at Santiago and Dan Juan—and for which our brave sons battled at Chateau Thierry and the Argonne, may long wave over the land of the free and the home of the brave."

FIGURE IT OUT. Memorial day and the Fourth of July fall on the same day of the week each year and of course have to pay their respects to other days of the week before they will come on Sunday again as they did this year. But it is something very much rarer for Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day and Independence Day all three to fall on Sunday. This can only happen when Washington's Birthday comes on Sunday in leap year, as has happened this year of Our Lord 1920. When shall these three fall on Sunday again? Figure it out, for yourself, we want to get to press before daylight.

CRUSH REVOLT. MEXICO CITY, July 3.—Government forces have crushed the revolt in the state of Chiapas, led by Col. Samado and Malvador G. Sotomayor, both of whom have been executed. The insurrection lasted but one day.

ABOUT TOWN

AUTO KILLS JACK.

The grim figure of death stalked into the midst of the Pokimkowski family, 514 N. Birdsell st., Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and carried away Jack, one of the most treasured members of the family. Victor Pokimkowski and his family were driving north on Michigan st. when a large touring car, Michigan license No. 274-M, cut the corner at LaSalle av. and struck Jack, breaking one of his legs then continued its journey without stopping to offer assistance.

Jack was the pet of the family and a friend of all the children in the neighborhood. But Jack was only a driving horse and to end his misery Police Officer Luther shot him. The touring car was described as a dark green Buick with yellow wheels and according to Pokimkowski the driver did not stop to offer assistance.

SMALL HUCKLEBERRY CROP. According to G. W. Milliken, an authority in St. Joseph county on huckleberries, the crop this season will be the smallest he has ever known. Last year about this time he used to get 200 pickings in one day; this year that number has dwindled to 15. The birds, he says, are eating the young berries, which is a big detriment to the crop. He predicts that huckleberries will be on the market during the early part of next week.

MOTORCYCLE OFFICER BERT Olmstead was a busy individual Sunday evening and as the result of his efforts three violators of traffic ordinances were brought to police headquarters. Theolli Lemons, 123 Thirteenth st., Mishawaka, and Russell Sears, 623 1-2 N. Birdsell st., were arrested, charged with speeding. Leonard Mennucci, 216 W. DAMAGE OF $10. Damage amounting to $10 was caused at the residence of Joseph Andrews, 618 Munson st., Sunday morning at 3:30 o'clock as the result of a roof fire. Central companies and Hose Co. No. 2 responded to the alarm from Box 62.

ROOF FIRE. First effects of the Fourth happened at 1:20 Sunday afternoon when several boys celebrating with fireworks set fire to a roof at 228 S. Walnut st. A still alarm was turned in and number four responded immediately. The damage was $15.

TEST NEW SAFES
FOR GOVERNMENT

Expert "Jimmy Valentines"
Being Employed to Make
Vaults Burglar Proof.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—Government experts are emulating the "Jimmy Valentines" of the underworld at the bureau of standards in their effort to decide upon the type of vault to be selected for the protection of deposits of the federal reserve board. A number of vaults, embodying in their construction the latest anti-burglar ideas, have been completed and tests are now under way to determine if they are sufficiently "proof" to be entrusted with the millions of dollars which the board distributes among members of the reserve system.

The specimen vaults are of concrete, reinforced with various materials guaranteed to discourage the most patient drill pusher. In some steel sheets of case-hardened steel have been inserted between layers of concrete, while iron rails, arranged in tiers, have been placed in others. A quantity of hard glass is to be tested in one vault, the opinion having been expressed that this material will dull the sharpest drill, while fusing before an oxy-acetylene torch.

RESIGNATION OF BOLIVIAN LEADER CAUSES COMMENT

South American Newspapers
Publish Complete Resume of Official's Letter.

BUENOS AIRES, July 4.—The recent resignation of the Bolivian minister to Brazil, Jose Carrasco, because he was not in accord with his government's aspirations for a port on the Pacific has caused much comment in South American newspapers and revived discussion of the Tacna and Arica case.

The newspapers here publish a resume of Senor Carrasco's letter of resignation to his government in which he tells why he cannot fulfill his instructions to work in favor of obtaining for Bolivia, through action of the League of Nations, a port in the Arica zone, whose ownership is disputed by Chile and Peru.

Analyses Facts. The Bolivian diplomat, formerly vice president of his country, makes an analysis of historical facts which go to show, he says, that Arica always belonged to Peru and that Bolivia has recognized this in various treaties some of which "were sealed by the blood of Peruvians and Bolivians in combats never to be forgotten."

Bolivia, he declared, had nevertheless, "followed the politics of Chile," has now mingled in the Tacna and Arica dispute, and "compromised her interests in irremedial form."

Apposes Alliance. The minister opposes an alliance with Chile of this sort. He adds that the territory desired by Bolivia is foreign territory and that he cannot conceive of the League of Nations "disposing of the territories of the continent on motives of geographical necessity."

American nations judge that Bolivia has a right to demand an outlet to the sea, but it is from Chile that she should demand this port, one of the ports which she took from Bolivia in the past, not a port which belongs to Peru, the minister asserts.

Chilean and Peruvian newspapers have entered into a sharp controversy over the merits of his argument.

ENGLISH LABOR IS CALLED INDOLENT

"Most Pay for Least Work"
Said to be Keynote of Workers.

BY GEORGE R. SMS. LONDON, July 4.—"For men must work and women must weep." This is what Charles Kingsley wrote with a passing reference to the fact that there was "little to earn and many to keep."

But the men of today want to leave off working and the women have largely left off weeping and taken to going to the pictures instead. Nobody in England apparently, excepting a few old-fashioned people, wants to work today. The hours of labor are becoming fewer and fewer and the shops are closing earlier and earlier; and when the shops close the shopkeepers object to anybody else selling the articles in which they—the shopkeepers—live.

The motto of the present day seems to be "The Least Possible Amount of Work for the Highest Obtainable Amount of Pay," and trade unionism demands that the industrious apprentice shall limit his output to that of the idle apprentice.

The keynote of production is to be limited output. This is not the spirit that animates the sea. Of that I have had practical proof. I sat on the seashore and a little wave rippled in at my feet as I sat on the beach. Then another little wave rippled in. Then suddenly a big billow bursting with energy rolled in far ahead of the others—and saturated my socks.

Rollicking Comedy, "Nothing But the Truth," Sixth Night of Chautauqua

The rollicking comedy success, "Nothing But the Truth," will be presented on the sixth night of the coming Redpath Chautauqua by a New York cast. The plot of this great American play is so full of amusing complications and surprises that it is one constant gale of merriment from first to last. Merely because he tells the pure, undistorted truth, the hero gets into one complication after another until he abandons himself to an orgy of fabrication. "Nothing But the Truth" is a clean, wholesome, delightful comedy.
